

Iberian Lawyer

BREAKING NEWS |

on Grupo GSS acquisition |

Abreu partner honoured by Barcelona Bar As

Tuesday, 19 February 2019 11:21

Cremades & Calvo-Sotelo integrates Galician firm

font size | Print | Email

Cremades & Calvo-Sotelo has opened a new office in Galicia with the integration of Pontevedra-based law firm Félix Ferreño.

The new office, which will have 25 professionals, will be led by founding partner Félix Ferreño, along with A Coruña-based partners Alberto García Ramos and Atilano Vázquez.

Cremades & Calvo-Sotelo, which was founded by Javier Cremades, has more than 200 lawyers.

García Ramos said: "The business plan of the Pontevedra office will focus on enhancing advice to current customers through a specialised model, and generating new business in areas such as commercial law and compliance."

Tweet

Like 0

More in this category: « KWM promotes Ildefonso Alier to partner Abreu Advogados advises Sporting star Nani on Orlando transfer »

back to top